

Opening Reception

Pierre Sylvain

Voodoo, slavery, jazz!

Friday,

February 9

6 - 8pm

Main Lobby

& 2nd Floor Gallery

The community is invited to the exhibit opening of Pierre Sylvain's Fantastical Journey: Voodoo, Slavery, Jazz. The paintings, representing the past ten years of the artist's work, portray cultural themes of the African American experience. The exhibit can be viewed during library hours through March 31.

An opening reception on Friday, February 9 will feature the jazz trio, "Livi Pop and Friends;" poet Frederick-Douglass Knowles II will read, and refreshments will be served. All are welcome!
