

VOLUNTEER OR COMMUNITY SERVICE

The Library utilizes volunteers or persons who need to perform community service on an informal basis as needed, with the following understanding:

1. Volunteers and persons carrying out community service are unpaid workers in the Library and are treated with the same attention and respect accorded paid staff.
2. The non-paid workers do not replace staff but provide support services to paid staff and/or work on special projects.
3. Persons wishing to be considered for volunteer placement will fill out the attached Application. Volunteers are selected based on their qualifications and the needs of the Library. There is no discrimination or favoritism because of race, color, religion, age, sex, national origin or ancestry, marital status, disability, mental illness or sexual preference unless there is a bona fide qualification issue.
4. Volunteers are assigned to work with a specific supervisor in one of the departments of the Library. The supervisor trains, schedules, supervises, and evaluates the volunteer.
5. Volunteers are expected to follow the Library's rules regarding employee conduct.
6. Workers Compensation does not cover Library volunteers.
7. Volunteers who use their own cars as part of their volunteer activity are required to have their own insurance and must sign a waiver releasing the Library and the City of Middletown from liability.
